- 4 d. Captain Hook and his pirates caught the Lost Boys and the Darling children.
- 1 e. Peter Pan looked for his shadow in the Darling family's house.
- 3 f. A Lost Boy, Tootles, almost killed Wendy.

Speaking Activities

4. Storytelling

Try to tell your friends the story of Peter Pan within one minute.

Suggested answer:

- Peter Pan and Tinker Bell were outside the Darling children's home.
- He taught the Darling children how to fly, and they all went to Neverland together.
- Wendy, one of the Darling children, took care of Peter Pan and the Lost Boys in Neverland.
- Captain Hook and the pirates wanted a girl to take care of them, so they kidnapped Wendy and the other children.
- Peter Pan decided to save Wendy and the Darling children.
- He fought against Captain Hook. Captain Hook fell into the water and died.
- Peter Pan brought the Darling children back to their home, but he decided to stay in Neverland. Peter Pan never grew up while Wendy became a mother.

5. Discussion

Would you like to be Peter Pan? Why? Use the table below to help you say why or why not.

I would like to be Peter Pan	I wouldn't like to be Peter Pan
could fly	no parents, no family
could fight against Captain Hook	always fight against Captain Hook and his pirates
never grow up, always play	my friends would grow up and I would be lonely

Can you think of other reasons?

Suggested answer:

I would like to be Peter Pan	I wouldn't like to be Peter Pan
lots of friends	always wear the same clothes
have a fairy friend, Tinker Bell	no work, get bored

Writing Activity

6. Imagine you are Wendy, John or Michael. You follow Peter Pan to Neverland.

Write what you expect to see there. Share your story with your partner.

Suggested answer:

I would expect to see colourful rivers and plants made out of candy. The plants could talk to each other and to people. One plant would have leaves that would make you fly if you ate them. The sky would be full of stars, and there would be two moons. There would be no businesses or factories in Neverland.

Students' own answer

Writing Activity

5. 'Alice followed the Rabbit out of curiosity. The Rabbit rushed to a rabbit hole and jumped into it. Without a second thought, Alice followed the Rabbit.

Down, down, down. Alice kept on falling ...'

What happened to Alice? Write your own Alice's Adventures in Wonderland.

Suggested answer:

Alice fell into a large bowl of chocolate in a cave. She swam to the edge of the bowl and climbed out. But she could not get out of the cave. She wandered around until she met the Rabbit. The Rabbit showed Alice the way out, and she continued her journey.

STORY 3 — The Happy Prince (Student's book page 22)

Fun Activities

Reading Activities

1. Match the two columns:

- | | | |
|---|---|--|
| a. The little swallow was flying to Egypt |  |  because winter was coming. |
| b. The Happy Prince cried |  |  because the Prince gave them precious jewels. |
| c. The lives of the poor became better |  |  because the Prince became blind. |
| d. The swallow did not leave the statue of the Happy Prince |  |  because the Prince looked dull. |
| e. People in the city melted the statue of the Happy Prince |  |  because he saw sad things happening in the city. |

2. Where can we find the following things on the Happy Prince statue?

Speaking Activity

3. How did the Happy Prince know there were poor people? How did he help them while he couldn't move?

Suggested answer:

The Happy Prince knew there were poor people because he could see them. He saw a woman who could not buy her sick son the food he wanted. He also saw a poor writer who had no wood to keep warm. To help these people, he asked the little swallow to take the jewels from his body and give them to the people.

Writing Activity

4. Do you like the ending of the story? Try to create a new ending.

Suggested answer:

I do not like the ending. I would end it this way:

God turned the Prince and the little swallow into humans and sent them back to the earth. The Prince later became the king of his country, and the little swallow became the queen. They made the country very strong, and tried to help the poor.

 b. She hated the bed.
 c. She said she was a real princess.

Speaking Activities

3. a. Why couldn't the prince find anyone to marry?

Suggested answer:

The prince couldn't find anyone to marry because none of the girls he met was a real princess.

- b. How did the queen prove that the girl outside the door was a real princess? Was the girl a real princess? Why?

Suggested answer:

The girl was a real princess because she felt the pea under twenty mattresses and twenty feather beds. This showed that she had the delicate skin that only real princesses have.

- c. Why do you think they put the pea in a museum?

Suggested answer:

The pea was put in the museum to remind people of how the prince and princess met.

Writing Activity

4. According to the story, nobody has really delicate skin except real princesses. Can you think of any other methods to test a girl to see if she is a real princess? Write down your method. Compare it with your partner's and discuss.

Suggested answer:

I would test her table manners.

- he might not have whitewashed a fence before.

b. Imagine you are Tom Sawyer, and tell what you saw in the graveyard. (Story 10)

You may begin with: 'I saw three shadows coming close to Hoss Williams' grave ...'

Suggested answer:

I thought they were devils at first, but I later found out they were Muff, Joe and Dr Robinson. Dr Robinson asked the other two men to dig up Hoss William's corpse. Afterwards, Dr Robinson refused to pay Muff and Joe more money for the job, so they started to fight. Dr Robinson knocked Muff unconscious, and Joe killed Dr Robinson with Muff's knife and ran away.

c. Debate

Tom Sawyer is a mischievous boy, but wise and with a warm heart. He often gets into trouble, but also tries to help people in their time of need. Is Tom good or bad? Find evidence from the stories.

Tom is good	Tom is bad
☺ Told the truth in court although he was very scared of Joe (Story 10) ☺ Told the judge to save Joe although Joe is a bad person (Story 10)	☹ Did not obey Aunt Polly (Story 9) ☹ Too lazy, did not whitewash (Story 9) ☹ Tricked his friends into whitewashing (Story 9) ☹ Made others worried about him (Story 10)

Are there any other reasons to support your point of view?

Suggested answer:

Tom is good	Tom is bad
☺ Didn't mind being friends with Huck, who was always dirty (Story 10)	☹ Went out late at night (Story 10)
